I am a little sad, but I decided to discontinue producing new Showcase programs. Being a performer myself, I was finding it increasingly hard to play "Simon Cowell" and listen to hundreds of submissions. I think everyone has talent and deserves airplay. Showcase will live on as you will be able to hear archived shows right here and also by ordering downloads of archived shows at www.franktoddradio.com . I'll also be playing and interviewing new artists whenever I get the chance to fill in on "Music You Can't Hear on the Radio".
